An Island Home

Katie Morag lives on the wet and windy Isle of Struay in the stories.

How is Katie protected from the weather? Think about her house and the buildings on the island...

Grannie Island lives on the Isle of Struay too. Her house has a steep roof. It doesn't have an upstairs. It has stone walls and small windows.

Katie's other grannie, Granma Mainland lives far away in a flat in a big city in mainland Scotland.

Grannie Island and Granma Mainland have different weather where they live.

Katie Morag's Isle of Struay is like the real Isle of Coll.

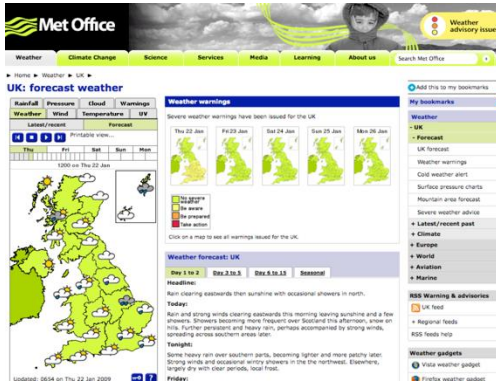

Coll has a wet and windy climate.

What is the weather like today where you live?

Have a look at the Met office latest weather:

What will the families need to wear on their daily walk today?

This week's task:

Use the sheet below to compare the Isle of Struay to where we live in London.

Write or draw all the things you have learnt about where you live and where Katie Morag lives.

Think of things that are the same and things that are different

Where we live	Where Katie Morag lives
Houses	Houses
Landscape	Landscape
Transport	Transport
Weather	Weather
People	People

Can you think of anything else to compare?
